We at Printer Logic try to make payments as easy as possible. We accept Direct Debit, Credit Cards, Company Cheques and of course Cash. Unless an account is established payment must be made in full, verified and cleared before shipment of goods is made. We at times may require our account form filled in to verify customer details and confirm acceptance of our Terms and Conditions.

DIRECT DEBIT: We prefer Direct Debit as the most direct and cost effective form of payment:

PRINTER LOGIC.

St George Bank BSB 112-879 Account # 055068491

To ensure rapid delivery email, fax or phone us with deposit details so we can link the payment and dispatch the order. Always please include as much detail as possible so we can link the payment to the order.

CREDIT CARDS: Payments by credit card are subject to fees dependant on card used and therefore prevents us from including this in our prices. Unless noted otherwise any prices quoted do not include Credit Card Fees.

Visa and MasterCard	add 2%	to invoice total
Amex and others that are accepted	add 3%	to invoice total

COMPANY CHEQUES: We also accept cheques sent to our address above. Please note that cheques will have to be cleared before shipment. Any returned cheque fees will have to be reimbursed.

DELIVERIES: Once payment has been verified, delivery to most capital cities are within 3 days (often next day, Sydney same day) country areas may take longer. We will advise if a delivery is expected to take longer, however delivery times cannot be guaranteed as many factors (such as Airport Baggage Handlers or you not being home) are out of our control. Urgent time critical deliveries incur a surcharge please call to arrange any important deliveries to discuss your options, which may include you picking the item up, arranging your own couriers, or having a special courier drop. Please note that standard pricing does not include delivery or installation. These are quoted separately if required. All warranties are offered by the manufacturer and are manufacturer backed.

Thanks
